Terms and Conditions

In order to book an intense course full payment must be made. No refunds will be made. It may be possible to change your course date if 28 days notice is given, however this change will be subject to an amendment fee of £25. If you are unable to attend a course due to illness or unforeseen circumstances, no refunds will be made, but you may be able to transfer the course to another family member or friend should you so wish, however this must be taken on the same date previously confirmed for yourself.

We cannot guarantee that you will be ready to take your driving test at the end of the intense course. You will take a mock driving test on the fifth day of the course and you must pass this before being permitted to use our vehicle for a DOE driving test. The instructor's decision will be final.

If you do not pass the mock test, the instructor will recommend a further course of tuition to enable you to reach test standard. Providing this tuition is taken within 28 days period of completing the intense course, we will make our vehicle available to you for your driving test, at a driving test centre of our choice.

If you are ready to take your driving test, but are unfortunate enough to fail; based on your performance in the test, our instructor will recommend to you further tuition and providing this tuition is taken within a 28 day period of taking the driving test, we will make our vehicle available to you for a repeat driving test at a driving test centre of our choice.

All driving test fees are payable directly to the DOE and we cannot be held responsible for any refunds or any test cancellations due to unforeseen circumstances beyond our control.

It is the pupil's responsibility to ensure they have the correct documentation with them at their test appointments. This includes both parts of your driving license the card and the counterpart and your theory test certificate. If you normally wear glasses for driving, please ensure you have these with you too.

Any evidence of alcohol and/or drug usage by a pupil will terminate their training forthwith, all tuition time will be lost until the pupil is in a fit condition to resume training. We cannot be held responsible for any losses incurred due to irresponsible behaviour.

Any cheques returned to us unpaid will be subject to a £10 charge.
